This is a project by a community organisation in Swindon. The group will use the funding to deliver a dance programme aimed at children with learning and physical difficulties. This will allow them to take part in more mainstream activities, make friends and improve the amount of physical activity they have.

Reaching Communities

The continuation of an existing Reaching Communities project delivered by Splitz Support Services (Splitz) for a further three years to continue and develop the current service offered to both perpetrators and victims of abusive behaviour in Wiltshire.

BIG

FUND

We will enable people across England to take the lead by using their local knowledge, strengths and assets to test and grow ideas that matter most to them, as well as to share learning about 'what went well' and 'what didn't' so that many more can benefit.

By taking the lead people will create:

- Happier & stronger relationships
- Shared and sustainable places
- Early Action to prevent future problems and tackle disadvantage

Design Principles

1. Strengths-based
2. Agile and iterative
3. Purposeful and collaborative
4. Joint learning and improvement
5. Backing new or different ideas

What will this look like?

- Improve Small Grants - A4A
- Develop new Medium and Large Responsive Offer
- Integrate building skills and capability into all grant-making.
- Look at our current strategic programmes and align them to new approach
- Test new relational ways of working

Tell us what you think...

Do these changes feel right to you? Will they enable people and communities to take the lead?

How can we better support grassroots groups to continue doing great work in their communities?

What support can we provide other than grants that would help organisations and communities?
